

ALESSANDRO PASSADORE

CURRICULUM VITAE

Alessandro Passadore has been working in the film industry for 38 years as producer and executive producer for several projects both in Italy and abroad, collaborating with major Italian and international production companies. Over the course of his career, he has produced more than 220 hours of programming, including Terrence Malick's "A Hidden Life" and important TV series and miniseries such as "Carlo Magno", "Don Matteo", "L'Ispettore Coliandro" and "Rocco Schiavone".

In 2016, together with Eric Welbers, he founded Viola Film srl with the aim of producing films and TV series independently. To date, the company has produced a number of successful TV series, including "Ognuno è Perfetto" and "Vincenzo Malinconico - Avvocato d'insuccesso" Season I and II, as well as the theatrical film "Non sono un assassino". Thanks to an extensive network of international contacts, Viola Film has also specialised in service for foreign projects, in particular with German-speaking production companies, producing TV series for platforms such as Netflix, Paramount+, ZDF, Degeto, ORF and others.

Among the executive productions in recent years, the most prominent TV series are "The Swarm - The Fifth Day", the first European co-production between Italy-France-Germany, "Crooks", "One Trillion Dollar" and many other projects.

Countries he has worked with: Argentina - Kenya - USA - Venezuela - Santo Domingo - Bolivia - Chile - England - Hungary - Romania - Greece - Brazil-Germany - India - Sri Lanka - Thailand- Cambodia- Bulgaria
